

Merry Christmas
and Happy New Year

We come to the end of what has to have been the busiest but most enjoyable two weeks of this year! Every child has been involved with the wonderful Christmas celebrations which rolled out across both schools. There was an event nearly every single day and so you can imagine how tired the whole school community is going to be by 1.30pm today! Throughout this time, many of you will have helped or attended some of our events and we hope that you have also all enjoyed these traditional celebrations of Christmas.

We are sure that you are looking forward to a few weeks holiday with your loved ones at this very special time of year.

We would like to take this opportunity to thank you all for your incredible support this term. We have had an amazing term with our pupils as we have watched them flourish in their learning and personal development. As we watch the whole school community work for the benefit of the children, it has been a delight to so see so many examples of how our children have exemplified the school values of Grace, Courage and friendship.

We wish you all a wonderful Christmas and every blessing for the New Year.

FINDO

Steven M Phillips

A chance encounter with a King's Messenger leads Findo on a journey that will change his life forever.

At last, Mr Phillips has written a children's novel.

Findo is an orphan who faces the uncertainty of living on the streets of the Kingdom's largest city, forced to find shelter wherever he can. He risks stealing food and the dangers of street bullies. One day, he is saved from a beating by a Messenger, a man who is protected by the King's laws so that he can deliver messages around the kingdom. Inspired by this, Findo decides to take the trials to become a Messenger. Politeness, confidence and ingenuity help him to pass the tests. He is sent to the Messenger training camp, where he meets other novice Messengers. Rumours of trouble between the Kingdom and Mirror City reach the camp. Danger is coming. Who can be trusted?
