Welcome back to the second half of the Spring Term and the very short run up to Easter.

One of the highlights of the school calendar is World Book Day. Many of our pupils (and staff) came in dressed as a word to help broaden their vocabulary. As you can see from the photos below that many learning opportunities were created. Some of the children moved between the schools to share books and talk about their ambitious vocabulary outfits. Thank you to all of those involved in, it takes a lot of effort to bring these words to life.

The anticipation of STEM week is also causing much excitement. Mrs Coe and Mrs Piper have worked very hard to bring this together. We are looking forward to welcoming in parents for talks, the PTA have organised workshops for the children and the highlight is of course, the Junior Science Fair on Friday.

Parent consultations will be held over the last few weeks of term, including on the Friday INSET day. Your children's books will be available to look at before your meeting and these are a great way to be updated on your children's progress and what they are working towards.

And finally, Spring is now upon us. The weather is brighter, blossom is on the trees, flowers are starting to emerge and the PTA have had two impromptu ice cream sales already - thank you. We would also like to thank Mrs Louise Dance for taking the time earlier in the year to plant some bulbs at the Infant School which are now looking splendid.

On 7th February, Amber Waite-Falcones competed at the South East Regional Synchronised Swimming competition and won first place with her team. The next competition will be the Nationals in July in Sheffield. Amber is delighted with her first gold medal in this sport.
